

Vrbo Complaints From Owners Commission Fees Charges

When Goffly hit his last year's channel, he found out that he had been charged with a commission fee of 15% on all bookings. This was a huge surprise as he had never heard of this before. He contacted Vrbo and was told that this was a standard fee for all owners. He was also told that he could dispute the fee if he did not want to pay it. He decided to do this and was successful in getting the fee waived. He was also able to get a refund of the fee that he had already paid. He was very happy with the result and decided to continue to use Vrbo for his business.
